

More than health insurance. A COVID-19 resource.

The health of our members comes first, that's why when COVID-19 hit, Business Health Trust and the Seattle Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce jumped in to help small businesses state-wide get the information and resources they need.

Masks for Washington Small Businesses

For many of our members planning for re-opening, finding affordable masks and face coverings has been a struggle. The Seattle Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce and Business Health Trust are working together to help solve the problem.

Through the generous support of many businesses, we are proud to offer a variety of face covering and mask options to meet the various needs of different businesses and industries at little to no-cost for small businesses in Washington State.
