Terms and Conditions

LAWS AND RULES

The renter shall not allow any lewd or illegal conduct on the premises throughout the scheduled event. The user shall comply with all state laws, City ordinances, and any lawful order of a Chamber representative made to prevent injury or damage.

CANCELLATIONS

The holding deposit will be refunded in full if the renter cancels the event more than 61 business days prior to the scheduled event. If the renter decides to cancel an event after that time, the renting party agrees to forfeit a portion of the deposit to the Chamber in the amounts set forth below:

- If cancelled within 60 days we will return 100% of the deposit. If you reschedule the meeting within 60 days of the cancellation date, the full deposit will be rolled over.
- If cancelled within 30 days, we will not return the deposit. If you reschedule the meeting within 60 days of the cancellation date, the full deposit will be rolled over.
- If you have specific questions regarding your reservation, please call the Chamber at 206-389-7200.

To officially cancel a reservation, the primary contact on the application is required to submit a letter or email notice of the cancellation. Cancellation is only confirmed upon receiving this notice.

FORCE MAJEURE

Either party will be excused from delays in performing or from its failure to perform hereunder to the extent that such delays or failures result from causes beyond the reasonable control of such party, including, but not limited to, acts of God, war or terrorist acts, government regulation or action, disasters, civil disobedience, strikes or threats to strike (except that neither party may terminate the Agreement for strikes or labor disputes involving their own employees or agents), regulations or orders of governmental authorities; power outages, inclement weather (i.e. hurricane, tornado, floods), epidemics (i.e. SARS), or any event not within a party's reasonable control which make performance excessively difficult, costly or harmful, to one or both parties (each, a "force majeure event"). If a party is unable to perform its obligations under this agreement due to a force majeure event, such party will provide prompt written notice to the other party, and may terminate this agreement without further liability of any nature. All deposits will be refunded within 60 days of the force majeure event.

CONDITION OF PREMISES

The user accepts the premises upon entry into possession. The User may inspect the premises at an earlier, mutually convenient time. Upon conclusion of the event, the user shall promptly return the premises in as good condition as received, reasonable wear and tear excluded, in a clean appearance, ready for use by another user. The Office and Events Center Manager will send a Post Events Checklist to be filled out by the user at the conclusion of their event. The user(s) agrees to cover financially, in excess of normal wear and tear, any damage to the Microsoft Events Center inflicted by the renting party or its guest(s).

SET UP/TAKE DOWN

Unless paying for Chamber labor to do so, the renting party is responsible for set up and take down of the event and for cleanup of the event. Failure to do so may result in forfeiture of part or all of the damage deposit and/or additional cleaning fees. The person(s) responsible for cleanup shall complete the Post Event Checklist and accompany the Office and Events Center Manager on a walk-through of the facility when take down is nearly complete but cleanup crew is still available, to ensure that cleanup is complete and to identify any damage. Any items identified as belonging to the renting party and left behind may result in a disposal fee.

Please refer to the Condition of Premises section regarding additional fees.

CHANGES TO CONTRACT

Should any changes occur prior to your requested use of the facility, notify reservations@seattlechamber.com so that changes can be made to your rental agreement. Changes may increase or reduce fee amounts, prior to actual use of the Events Center. Accommodations are dependent on availability.

INDEMNITY

The user shall indemnify and hold the Chamber harmless from any and all claims, actions, losses and damages to person or property (including, but not limited to attorney's fees and expenses, suffered as a consequence of or arising or resulting, directly or indirectly, from any act or omission of the user on or about the premises. In the event that any lawsuit based upon any such claim action, loss, damage or cost is brought against the Chamber, the user, after being notified that such lawsuit has been started, shall defend such lawsuit at no expense to the Chamber; and if, in such lawsuit, a final judgment is rendered against the Chamber, or the Chamber and the user, jointly, the users shall promptly satisfy such judgment.

The user's liability under the indemnification agreement shall not be reduced by any Chamber negligence; provided, that nothing shall require the user to indemnify the Chamber against the sole negligence of any Chamber employee or agent acting within the scope of such person's employment.

RESPONSIBILITY

The user assumes responsibility for all activities conducted on the premises, but not limited to, supervision and control to prevent injury or damage; maintenance of the premises during the use; picking up bottles, debris, and refuse; and providing security to maintain order. The user is responsible for allotting time for catering and must be here to receive and check their order. Users are also responsible for taking any leftover food after the event and cannot leave it on the premises. If deemed necessary the Chamber can schedule for the building to help dispose of any leftovers, this must be scheduled in advance and users are responsible for any fees if they should accrue. If they caterer is bring chafing trays, please be sure to allot time for those to be picked up( include this on your clean up time). The Chamber disclaims any liability from, and the user agrees not to hold the Chamber liable for any occurrences arising from the event as described in the reservation application.

INSURANCE

All users must provide proof of liability insurance naming the Seattle Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce as the certificate holder. Proof of liability insurance is due no less than 10 business days before your event. Until insurance is received by the Chamber, the reservation is considered temporary and may be canceled at the Chamber's discretion.

NO ASSIGNMENT

This permission may not be assigned, nor the premises, sublet, without the prior written consent of the Chamber.

ENDORSEMENT

The Chamber does not endorse or promote the products or services presented by members or external parties that have rented the Microsoft Events Center.

RENTAL HOURS

Events Center operating hours are 7:30 a.m.-5:00 p.m., Monday–Friday. Events outside these hours must have Chamber staff present. If you are planning an after-hours event, please contact reservations@seattlechamber.com to check staff availability. After hours rates may apply. The Rainier Tower is not open to the public on weekends.

LINENS

Please contact the caterer of your choice for their information on renting linens.

ALCOHOL POLICY

Per Washington State law, a banquet permit must be displayed if alcohol will be served at your event. Selling alcohol is not permitted. If your caterer does not have a banquet permit, you must purchase one for your event. Please visit the Washington State Liquor Control Board website: <http://liq.wa.gov/licensing/banquet-permits> for more information. When you purchase your banquet permit online, an email copy of it is sent to your local liquor enforcement office. Officers can visit gatherings, so it is important that you sign and post a copy of your permit at the location where you will be serving the alcohol at your event.

TRASH & RECYCLING

Seattle law prohibits recyclable or compostable materials being placed in the trash. Please use the compost, recycling, and trash receptacles provided in each room.

NO SMOKING

Rainier Tower is a non-smoking facility.

DECORATIONS

The Chamber does not permit decorations to be affixed to walls using nails, staples, thumb tacks, or similar method. "Airborne" materials such as confetti, bubbles, rice, sparklers, or similar substances are prohibited. Candles must have an enclosed flame.

AUDIO VISUAL EQUIPMENT

AV is controlled from the Creston touchscreen on the podium(s). Each room is equipped with cameras for virtual meeting capability, which can be used with Zoom, Microsoft Teams, and WebEx. The Chamber suggests scheduling a time in advance of the meeting to run through AV if you have not been here before. The Events center is equipped with 6 handheld microphones, 3 lapel microphones, 3 mic stands, and 3 laptops( one per room). We have 4 high rise chairs and one small high-rise table. We can provide slide show advancer, additional USB ports (one per room with 4 additional slots), and extension cords( one per room). Contact the Office Manager/Events Center Coordinator if you need assistance.
